

Minutes from SEPTA Meeting held on April 14, 2010

Meeting was called to order and the minutes from March 10, 2010 were approved.

BOARD MEMBERS PRESENT

Doreen Rooney – Co-President

Eleanor Evangelista – Co-President

Sharon Shearon - VP Membership

Paul Kim – Treasurer

Angela Asher – Correspondence Secretary

Theresa Hrivnak – Programming

Christine Devir – Recording Secretary

Membership:

No new members to report

TREASURER:

No new activity to report

CORRESPONDENCE:

SEPTA received a thank you from Linda Marvin, 6th grade math teacher.

EVENTS:

- Backyard Sports after school club has started. Club meets on Tuesdays. SEPTA received thank you notes from some of the parents. They said that their children really enjoyed the club. There are 24 participants. Children are able to participate and have their aids accompany them. The program is staffed by Danny Bernstein, but there are also kids from the high school volunteering to help. This is the first after school club designed for special education children.
- The Lord and Taylor shopping day will be held tomorrow (Wednesday, April 15). Tickets are still available at the meeting.
- Save the date – June 20 – Toy Story 3 will be shown at 10:00 a.m. Movie will address sensory issues and is open only to SEPTA members.

PROGRAMMING:

The next SEPTA meeting will be held on May 5th. The speaker will be Alisa Dror, an RD certified consultant and behaviorist and the Clinical Director of Tristate Learning Center in New Rochelle. She will be discussing Relationship Development Intervention and how it helps children on the spectrum with their social and emotional deficits.

Karen Miller 3 dog bakery – gluten free bakery in Briarcliff Manor provided gluten free baked goods for the evening.

Speakers for meeting were Susan Young and Nancy Guberti

Meeting adjourned.