

Minutes from SEPTA Meeting December 8, 2009

Meeting was called to order and the minutes from last meeting were approved.

Old Business: Officers Report: $39,789.00.

Fundraisers: Lord and Taylor made $ 2,100 so far through ticket sales.

Mini calendars made $1,100 dollars.

Membership: Increased to 260 with 151 returning and 109 new members.

Correspondence: Acknowledged Christine Devir for treats donated to "The Café" in Nora Flynn's classroom.

Thank you from Carolyn Porta for the Faculty Appreciation Cocktail Party.

Noreen Urso thanked board for cocktail party.

Programming: Next meet will be held on January 20, 2010. Christina Hiff will be the guest speaker. Located in Irvington, NY. Ms. Hift will speak about infectious diseases and rheumatology. She became a provider of special services for special needs kids. The information can be found on the website.

Old Business: Cocktail reception at La Tutta Bella was a great success. About 60 people attended and the response was great.

The Lord and Taylor Benefit was very successful: About $2,100 in sales so far. We will be getting more from Lord and Taylor at a later date.

New business: Movie date on Saturday December 6. The movie shown was Fantastic Mr. Fox. Approximately 200 people attended. Gluten free snacks were donated by the teachers association. Teacher tickets were also paid for by the teachers association.

Mickey Spillane's offered to run a fundraiser karaoke night. Anyone who sings will get money back for SEPTA.

A bowling event will be planned. It will be similar to movie event. Logistics have to be figured out.

Motion made to close – approved.

Guest speaker for meeting as Danny Bernstein – runs after school program on backyard sports for kids with special needs.